Street Closures Planned for 2021 Christmas Parade, LGTV to Carry Parade Live

LaGrange, Ga. November 30, 2021 – The City of LaGrange wants to advise citizens of several streets closings in anticipation of the 45th annual Christmas parade in downtown LaGrange Thursday, December 2nd.

The parade will begin 6:00 p.m. but the streets will be closed starting at 5:45 p.m. Parallel parking spots on the 100 blocks of Bull & Main Streets will be blocked off from parking all day Thursday, December 2nd. Diagonal parking spots on Bull & Main Street will be available for parking all day as well as during the parade.

The festivities will begin at 3:00 p.m. on Lafayette Square with the Mingle with Kringle event. The annual Christmas tree lighting in downtown will be at 5:00 p.m. Grammy-nominated local blues musician Jontavious Willis will give a concert on Lafayette Square after the annual tree lighting at around 5:15 p.m. The parade is expected to begin at 6:00 p.m.

The City of LaGrange's television station LGTV will be carrying the parade LIVE on Facebook at facebook.com/lgtv.org.
