“Now that I’m finally back, it’s been a long time coming. It feels good. It feels like I’m finally getting back to normal,” said Avera surrounded by his fellow firefighters.

“One of the best things about being back on the job, as well as when I was in the hospital, is these guys. Thank you everyone for your continued prayers.”

Avera along with five other firefighters were injured in a Labor Day structure fire. Josh Williams, Jon Williamson, and Pete Trujillo were seriously injured in the fire. Jim Ormsby and Sean Guerrero received minor injuries.

“Jordan being back is part of the healing process for him as well as the rest of the guys,” said LFD Deputy Chief Chad Dallas.
