

LAGRANGE
GEORGIA

News Release
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 4, 2019

LaGrange Firefighter Pete Trujillo Returns to Work

LaGrange, Ga. March 4, 2019 – LaGrange Firefighter Pete Trujillo returned to work this morning.

Trujillo will be on light duty at the LaGrange Fire Department Headquarters where he will assist with training while he continues to recover.

LFD Firefighter Pete Trujillo poses with coworkers on his first day back to work

As Trujillo walked into work he was greeted by a long line of LaGrange firefighters celebrating his return to the job. He greeted every person in line with a hug before reporting to duty.

Trujillo is one of six firefighters injured in a Labor Day structure fire, September 3rd, 2018. Trujillo, Josh Williams, Jordan Avera, and Jon Williamson were seriously injured in the fire. Jim Ormsby and Sean Guerrero received minor injuries.

Lt. Josh Williams returned to work January 28th.

Media Contact: Katie Mercer Van Schoor, City of LaGrange
Marketing/Communications Manager, (706) 883-2055

To keep up with the latest news involving the City of LaGrange, go to www.lagrangega.org or follow us on Facebook at facebook.com/lagrangegov, Twitter at @lagrangegov, & Instagram at instagram.com/cityoflagrangega

###