LaGrange Youth Council members were asked to bring a friend who may be interested in these topics.

LYC Historian Jack DeVane is serving in his second year of the LaGrange Youth Council and brought the idea of LIFE 101 to the group. “Many of my friends are about to graduate with me and don’t know what they are going to do with their lives after they graduate,” said DeVane. “I’m thankful that this whole idea turned into a reality and can hopefully help people.”

LYC Member Mary Frances volunteered to chair the event because she believes the event can help a lot of her peers. “We talked about resumes which can be very important as we start applying to college as well as interview skills. I think all three of these topics can be very helpful in the coming years.”

LGTV, the City of LaGrange’s television station, plans to post a video of Tuesday’s class on the LaGrange Youth Council and LGTV Facebook pages.

The LaGrange Youth Council hopes to host another class and open it up to the community in the future.
