New Holiday Tradition Begins in Downtown LaGrange, Candlelight Caroling at LaFayette Square

LaGrange, Ga. December 19, 2019 – On Saturday, December 21st LaFayette Square will be the center of a new Christmas tradition, a place for community voices to come together to celebrate the Christmas season in song.

A local citizen, Bob Goehring, brought the caroling idea to LaGrange after learning New Orleans has celebrated a similar event for over 40 years.

LaGrange's event will take place on Saturday, December 21 at 5:00 pm. Songbooks and candles will be provided to the crowd on a first come, first served basis. Local choir directors will lead the community along as traditional Christmas carols and classic seasonal songs are sung. The event should last one hour.

Members of the community are encouraged to bring their family and friends to sing along at this festive event. Everyone that loves to sing Christmas songs, including youth groups and church choirs are invited to attend.

“It seems to be a perfect fit for our community. We hope that Caroling at LaFayette Square will become a beloved holiday tradition for LaGrange,” says Barbie Watts, Director of Promotions and Marketing for Downtown LaGrange Development Authority.
