The former New England Patriots cornerback created the non-profit Tyrone Poole Foundation to help serve the LaGrange community that helped to raise him.

Poole plans to continue to hold summer youth camps and provide Thanksgiving meals for those in need. He says he is committed to helping make LaGrange a better place to live and this event is one of many to come.

According to Poole, the bond between the father and daughter is crucial. This dance is open to fathers, stepfathers, grandfathers, uncles, and father figures.
